STRATECO'S PRESIDENT TO BUY SHARES IN THE OPEN MARKET

Boucherville, QC, August 14, 2012 - Guy Hébert, President and Chief Executive Officer and an insider of Strateco Resources Inc. ("Strateco"), announces that he intends to buy common shares of Strateco on the open market, from time to time, on the Toronto Stock Exchange TSX, while Strateco is awaiting the Canadian Nuclear Safety Commission's decision regarding the issuance of the license for the Matoush project underground exploration program. Mr. Hébert currently owns 6,063,614 shares of Strateco, directly and indirectly.

As mentioned in the quarterly report, in the eventuality that the license for the underground exploration program is granted, Strateco will resume discussions with potential strategic partners.

Strateco's interim MD&A and unaudited condensed interim financial statements for the second quarter of 2012 have been released, and can be found on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

This news release contains forward-looking statements subject to certain risks and uncertainties. There can be no assurance that these statements will prove to be correct. Actual results and future events could differ significantly from those implied by such statements. These risks and uncertainties are discussed in the annual report filed with the securities commissions of British Columbia, Alberta, Ontario and Quebec.
